Archbishop Blair Appoints a Priest Chaplain to the Connecticut Catholic Men's Conference

HARTFORD, Conn. (Apr. 18, 2017) Archbishop Leonard P. Blair, in conjunction with Bishops Frank J. Caggiano of the Diocese of Bridgeport, Michael R. Cote of the Diocese of Norwich, and Peter Paul Chomnycky of the Ukrainian Catholic Diocese of Stamford, is pleased to announce that Rev. James M. Sullivan, pastor of Assumption Parish in Ansonia, has been appointed as the priest chaplain of the Connecticut Catholic Men's Conference.

The 10th annual 2017 Catholic Men's Conference will be held on Saturday, October 21 at Saint Paul Catholic High School in Bristol. It will provide spiritual enrichment to men of all ages by listening to dynamic Catholic speakers, meeting Catholic leaders, and offering day-long Adoration and the Sacrament of Reconciliation. The conference will close with a Vigil Mass, during which Archbishop Blair will deliver the homily.

After ordination in 2014, Fr. Sullivan was appointed parochial vicar of the Torrington cluster of parishes which include: St. Francis of Assisi, St. Peter, Sacred Heart and St. Mary. He was also the parish principal of St. Francis-St. Peter School, where he organized the charity bike ride, "Our Father's Ride," to raise money for Catholic school education. A year and a half later, he was assigned as the administrator of Assumption Parish in Ansonia, which also has a school. He is a member of the Presbyteral Council, which assists the Archbishop in the pastoral governance of the local Church in Hartford. Fr. Sullivan has attended the Connecticut Catholic Men's Conference for several years, as both a participant and a presenter. He believes it offers men valuable information and educational tools, which they can use to become better role models for their families.

The following distinguished speakers will make presentations at the 2017 conference: Bishop Frank Caggiano, spiritual leader of the Diocese of Bridgeport; Tim Staples, director of Apologetics and Evangelization at Catholic Answers; Raymond Arroyo, managing editor and lead anchor for EWTN News and The World Over Live, and a New York Times best-selling author; Jim Wahlberg, executive director of the Mark Wahlberg Youth Foundation; and Rev. Glenn Sudano, CFR, one of the original eight founders of the Franciscan Friars of the Renewal.
